Re: United States v. William Scott, a/k/a "Ill Will,"
21 Cr. 429 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

The Government writes, in an abundance of caution, to respectfully request that time be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), between today and March 29, 2022, the date of the next pretrial conference in this case. The Government submits that the ends of justice served by an exclusion of the time outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The Government has contacted the defendant's newly appointed counsel for her position on this request but has yet to hear back from counsel.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney

GRANTED. Time is excluded under the Speedy Trial Act until March 29, 2022, because the ends of justice served by excluding such time outweigh the interests of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial as the exclusion will allow time for parties to prepare for trial.

SO ORDERED.
